Deputy Amildars to travel in Second Class and to draw the railway fare of that class.

READ—

Letter No. 2602—33-34, dated 2nd January 1934, from the Revenue Commissioner, forwarding the marginally noted Resolution passed at the last Amildars' Conference and stating that the Deputy Amildars are, under the existing rules, entitled to draw Third Class Railway fare only for journeys on duty, that it would not be in keeping with the status of a Deputy Amildar to travel in Third Class and recommending that the Deputy Amildars may be allowed to travel in Second Class and draw the fare of that class.

"That for purposes of drawing ordinary travelling allowance, the Deputy Amildars may be classed under Amildars as they cannot travel in Third Class and Inter without prejudice to their status."

Changes in the designation of the officials working in the field in the Survey Department.

READ—

Correspondence ending with letter No. R. R. 44—33-34, dated 15th January 1934, from the Survey Superintendent, recommending that for reasons given, the officials who are variously known as "Fieldmen," "Measurers," "Classers," "Mojinidars" and "Surveyors" may be hereafter styled as "Surveyors" and that the officials known as "District Surveyors," "Testors" and "Nimtandars" may be styled as "Supervisors" and that these officials may be called Land Record or Record of Rights Supervisors and Surveyors according as they work in the Land Revenue or Record of Rights Section of the Department.

ORDER No. R. 4030-40—L. S. 39-33-4, DATED BANGALORE, THE 10TH FEBRUARY 1934.

It is stated that the suggestion is merely to secure uniformity as the present practice of calling the same officials by different designations often times puzzles persons unconnected with the Department and makes them think that the officials belong to different grades or classes and that the public will have no doubts in the matter if all the officials who actually measure or class the lands are called 'Surveyors' and those who oversee their work 'Supervisors'. The Survey Superintendent further states that the change in the designation as proposed by him does not connote any alteration in pay. The suggestion of the Survey Superintendent is approved.

S. ABDUL WAJID,
Secretary to Government,
Development Department.
